It is recommended that exhibitors arrive at 6 A.M. on Saturday if your birds need to be tested. Please do not wait until the last minute to have this done.

Failure to check-in with the State Inspectors and the Show Secretary prior to bringing in birds into the show area may result in disqualification from the show. Anyone bringing a bird onto the show grounds, even if they are for sale and not being entered in the show, must follow the bio-security rules listed in the rules page.

Any birds showing any signs of illness will be promptly removed from the Showroom. No exceptions.

SHOW RULES

1. The AgFest Poultry Committee reserves the right to substitute and/or add judges if necessary. All judge's decisions are final.

3. The terms COCK (C), HEN (H), COCKEREL (K), AND PULLET (P) are defined as in the APA Standard.
4. Trios will be accepted. Males contribute 50% and females must be closely matched for trio judging. Caging will be done by youth exhibitor after bird judging is done, and will be announced so youth exhibitor can move their birds to caging area.

6. Youth Showmanship will follow the Youth Exhibition Poultry Association (YEPA) rules.
7. Due to show setup timelines, all entry deadlines in these rules will be strictly enforced.

19. No birds will be released until judging is complete and show champion is chosen. Cooping out of birds before judging is complete will be considered a disqualification.
