1. Entries are open to all Standard Bred Poultry, including Chickens (Large Fowl & Bantam), Turkeys, Ducks, Geese, and Guineas.
2. Entries are open to both members, and non-members of the Cluck and Quack Poultry Club. Please mark all entries as Junior or adult. Juniors are individuals under 16 years of age.
3. Entries MUST be received by Wednesday November 21st, 2018. If choosing to snail mail entries please phone or email Kylie to let her know you have entries coming. It has happened in the past that due to mail strikes and slow mail that entries and payment were not received before the show. We do not want your entries to be missed due to slow mail. Email is preferred for sending in entries.
4. Please check in before cooping in birds. All entries must be paid in full before judging starts, cash or cheque please. Payment will be accepted at Show Office table before judging starts. Make cheques payable to Cluck and Quack Poultry Club, you may mail it with your entry form or bring payment upon arrival at show grounds. All N.S.F. cheques returned will result in an automatic $25.00 service charge.
5. Entries are $4.00 per bird for both Open and Junior exhibitor. In making an entry, the exhibitor agrees to be governed by the rules and regulations. There is one bird per cage.
6. All entries must include Breed, Variety, and Sex on the entry form. All birds will be judged in the class as written on the entry form. You may make substitutions within class provided the class and section remains the same as the original entry. All breeds that include bearded and non-bearded or single comb and rosecomb varieties should be identified specifically.
7. All specimens must be exhibited in their natural condition except for: All Old English Games, Modern Games and American Games Cocks and Cockerels - large and bantam - must be dubbed.
8. All entries must be the property of the exhibitor at least 30 days prior to the date of the show.
9. No birds will be shown from flocks which have had an infectious or contagious disease for at least six weeks prior to entry closing date. Exhibitors who make an entry do so with the distinct understanding that they abide by this regulation, and guarantee that their stock has been free from disease for the period stated.
10. All entries must be clean and disease free. Entries are subject to refusal by the show board, void of refund. All sick birds will be removed from the show room by the Show Management. Neither the Cluck and Quack Poultry Club, nor its officers are responsible for any loss, sickness or injury to any birds brought to the show.
11. This is a licensed American Poultry Association Show, and all applicable rules, point allotments apply. The latest revised American Standard of Perfection and American Bantam Standard shall be the guide in all Poultry Entries judged.
12. The judge shall have power to withhold awards at his/her discretion and will be instructed to the effect that no award is to be given unless the exhibit is worthy. The judge's decision is final.
13. Feed and water will be supplied, but all exhibitors will be responsible for the feeding and watering of their own birds.
14. There will be a lunch canteen available at the showroom on Saturday with a selection of hot and cold lunch items at affordable prices.

15. Evening dinner buffet will be held @ Days Inn in the banquet room, 6:30 PM, at an additional charge. Award presentation will take place Saturday evening, following the dinner.
16. Sale coops are available to exhibitors for $4.00 a cage only on a limited basis, please contact us to book cages now as there is only a few available. Sale birds must be clean and disease free.
