TABLETOP JUDGING FORMAT

Sanctioning Body: Serama Council of North America

Youth Classes (ages 17 and under): Cock, Hen, Cockerel, Pullet, Frizzled M/F, Silkied M/F, Prospect M/F

Tier 1: Birds will be judged individually, according to the scorecard. Birds will have 60- 80 seconds on the table in front of the judge. Exhibitors will place their bird on the table, have 5-10 seconds to pose their bird, then they must step to outside the judging area until judging is completed.

Tier 2: Top scorers in each class will be brought back to be judged against one another. A champion and reserve will be named for each class.

Tier 3: Class champions, will compete for Champ/ Rsv Male, and Champ/Rsv Female.

**Prospect winners do not advance to Tier 3, but will earn points towards the show series.

Tier 4: Champion Male & Female, Overall Champ of Show.

FAQ's:

Is there a minimum age requirement for exhibitors?

No, but 3 is probably the youngest possible, as youth exhibitors should be old enough to place the bird on the table without assistance. Exceptions are made for any disabilities.

How old do the birds have to be to enter?

Cocks and Hens are birds over 12 months of age. Cockerels and pullets are birds under 12 months of age. And Prospects under 6 months of age.

Are there overnight accommodations?

No, it is a one day event only..

Is there a fee to watch?

Nope! No fees to watch!

What should I bring?

Chair, water & food for your birds, wet wipes are handy, maybe a small pop up table for your own use, any grooming aids you want to bring. Lunch can be purchased at nearby restaurants.

Can I sell Seramas there?

Yes, you can bring sale birds. You will need to bring your own pens for those.

If I buy a bird at the show, can I enter it that day?

We cannot accommodate the last minute add-on's and changes, it gets too hectic at the start of the show. You can ask on show day, but the answer will probably be no.

Can I make changes to my entries?

We do not collect leg band numbers until show day, so if you would like to swap a hen for another hen, that's not a problem. Keep your changes within the same class.
